

Keeping Alabama's Waterways Trash Free

“Our mission at ADEM is to assure for all citizens of the State a safe, healthful, and productive environment.”

-ADEM

Plastics slowly break down to smaller pieces that cause harmful effects to fish and marine life and they can often mistake it for food..

Always remember to put your trash in a trash can so that litter does not harm wildlife, and does not end up in waterways harming fish and turtles.

