Yeah, I 15 agree with it and, as a Commission 16 member, I appreciate the people taking 17 the time to submit those comments, 18 because like Ruby said, it's important 19 to get that feedback from whatever the 20 perspective is. Everybody's got a 21 different perspective on how something 22 needs to be taken -- you know, taken 23 on. So in any event...

Personnel Committee will present to the Commission for consideration. So we'll discuss that. At this time, the -- I'll just note that we'll discuss the recommendation we want to present to the Commission for consideration on the job performance, and the current Director's salary is at Pay Grade 90, Step 18, which is the last step, so for the ensuing year the salary will remain unchanged. And also note that in previous Director evaluations, we've recommended to the Commission that they authorize -- that the Commission authorize the Personnel Committee Chair to meet with the Director regarding the compilation of written comments, and execute a verification of understanding of the evaluation between the Commission and Director. So at this time, I'm going to call
